TM THROWS OUT CRUISER BIDS

CALABRESE THROWS OUT POLICE CAR AND OTHER BIDS.

The controversial bids over the new police cars, protested by Fred F. Cain of Fred F. Cain, Inc., last week, have been thrown out by Acting Town Manager Fred Calabrese. Calabrese told the Selectmen Monday evening that he would call for new bids on the two police cruisers.

'There was nothing wrong with the specifications' Calabrese told the Board. 'All the larger purchasing departments in the Commonwealth use specifications similar to those used by the Town of Wilmington, and I'll argue that point anywhere anytime.'

Calabrese told the Selectmen that he was aware of the controversial failure of the Ford Agency to include their deductions for Excise Tax in their bids, and that this was the first thing he had talked about with Town Counsel Philip Buzzell, within a few minutes of the time that the bids had been opened. Buzzell told him not to press the issue, Calabrese stated.

Calabrese in effect said he was calling for new bids because of the controversy, and not because of any errors on his part.

Tree Truck

New bids will also be called for the Tree Truck. No bid that was submitted was within the allotted budget amount. Calabrese told the Selectmen that he would have to eliminate some of the items in the specifications.

Highway Truck

New bids will have to be called for the Highway Dept. truck as well. Calabrese told the Selectmen that the lowest bidder did not file a duplicate bid with the Town Accountant, as was required, and that the second lowest bidder was over the amount of money budgeted.

URBAN RENEWAL FUNDS ACCEPTED BY W.H.A.

The Wilmington Housing Authority, in a special meeting Monday evening voted to file an Application of Acceptance, for the $49,365 recently allocated to Wilmington for purposes of Urban Renewal.

As of Monday evening it was planned to file the application within a week, in Urban Renewal Headquarters in New York.

CIVIL DEFENSE ON THE JOB

Fred Ingersoll, Fred West, and Oliver Aruda, of the Wilmington Civil Defense Fire Department, arriving at the scene of an imaginary casualty Tuesday evening, ready for anything. The Civil Defense Fire Truck is stored at the J. W. Greer Plant, on Main Street. All of the men in the picture are Greer Employees.

The money given to Wilmington is in the form of a loan, repayable on demand, in the event that the town does not decide to go through with the Urban Renewal project.

The period of time in which the money can be spent (for study and planning) has been cut from nine months to six. It is understood that this is the general story in all Urban Renewal projects throughout the country. The planning period is being cut, in an effort to hasten the work along.

$400,000 has been set aside in Urban Renewal funds, for allocation to the town if and when Wilmington votes to accept Urban Renewal. A sum of $200,000 will have to be provided by the town, not necessarily in cash, at the time of acceptance. Land sold by the town to the Urban Renewal project, and work done by the town in the project will all be used as part of the town's contribution.

THE BANKERS EXPRESS WILL STOP NO MORE AT SILVERLAKE

New time tables, still unofficial, posted by the Boston & Maine Railroad indicated that the so-called Bankers Express, from Silver Lake to Boston, has been cancelled effective with the time table changes of May 18th.

The pride and joy of the Silver Lake residents since before the turn of the century, the Bankers Express ran non-stop 17 miles from Silver Lake to Boston, generally in about 18 minutes, leaving Silver Lake at about 8:03 am and arriving in Boston before 8:30.

Several other trains have been dropped from the new schedule, both on the Nashua (Wilmington) branch and on the Portland (North Wilmington) branch, but the general effect is to speed up the time of travel between Boston and Wilmington by several minutes.

There is to be no train from North Wilmington after 4:31 pm until 11:09 pm.

Only two trains each way will stop at Silver Lake.

Not many trains were dropped in the schedule between Wilmington and Boston.

MICHELSON ELECTED DIRECTOR OF URBAN RENEWAL BY WHA

Robert B. Michelson, 406 Main St., Director of the WHA Housing for the Elderly Project was elected Director of the Urban Renewal Project of the Wilmington Housing Authority, on April 29th. Urban Renewal, to cost about $600,000, will involve about 31 acres of land adjacent to Wilmington Square.

CIVIL DEFENSE AMBULANCE CORPS GETS FIRST WORKOUT

Wilmington, theoretically, was practically blown off the map Tuesday afternoon. A ten megaton bomb had struck the MIT laboratories in Cambridge, and another of the same size had struck the Bedford Air Base, early Tuesday afternoon, and the resulting blast damage in Wilmington, only 10 miles away practically wiped out the southern section of Wilmington.

Thanks to an alert that the Wilmington Civil Defense Corp had received at 11:15 am a large segment of the population had been successfully evacuated, up Route 38 to the New Hampshire line. Those people who had remained, however, were to be listed as casualties, either dead, or dying.

The theoretical radiation fall out in Wilmington, from the Bedford Bomb reached 271 roentgens, in fall out. The fallout is cumulative, so that in a few hours time most people would have received over 500 roentgens, which is a lethal dose to 50% of the population.

Those people who had taken refuge in cellars had a longer time to withstand the deadly fallout - about 72 hours would have had to elapse before they had accumulated a lethal dosage, according to the RADEF team.

Rescue Operations

Led by Wilmington's Civil Defense Director Rene LaRivee, the Civil Defense team swung into operation at 9 am Tuesday. At 11:15 am the Engineer Group, consisting principally of Town Trucks and equipment was evacuated to a point in Tewksbury, on Route 38, just beyond the major blast damage.

The idea was to keep all trucks, bulldozers, and other such equipment operational, and ready to dispatch to places where needed.

The Communications Group, carrying Short Wave Civil Defense Radios was also evacuated, in theory.

Practically, the men in this group were dispersed throughout the town, to test communications.

Radio Communications were very good, Communications Officer Ted Daly reported. No part of Wilmington was found to be out of the range of the short wave radios, and reception was wonderful.

Ambulance Corps

It was the first try-out for the Ambulance Corps. Using the Wilmington Civil Defense Ambulance, they answered a call to the Medico home on Federal Street, where Peter Medico, a Specialist First Class in the

URBAN RENEWAL

Urban Renewal, for Wilmington, is now to all intents and purposes something that is certain to happen. Money has been allocated for plans.
More money is allocated for future needs - a total of nearly $600,000.00.

But this sum of money does not in itself express the magnitude of the event, for in the more human terms of people there is still another measurement - the businesses to be moved and the families to be relocated.

The man who will have charge of this will have to be a person of rare tact. It is not enough, although it is vital, that he be a person of good business sense. He must have, and it cannot be stressed too strongly, tact.

The Director of Urban Renewal cannot forget that he is responsible to the people of Wilmington for the success of the project. He must be able to work with, and not in spite of, the various boards who will be concerned with this project.

The Director of Urban Renewal must remember that what is being done in the next year or so is only the beginning. Urban Renewal is not a temporary expedient, nor a stop gap. It is a plan for the future, in which the Federal,
State and local governments are all bearing their share, in the hope that better things will be the result of their combined effort.
Urban Renewal is long range planning, and long range planning cannot be haphazard.

There are people who consider being a Selectman as the most important thing in Wilmington today.

They are wrong. The post of Selectman finds a person only one out of five, with four other members ready to correct errors.

Other than perhaps the Town Manager, the Director of Urban Renewal is going to be the most important person in Wilmington for the next year.

It will not be an easy job.

NICKY'S BROOK

Nick De Felice seems to have won for himself
a brook, which used to be known as the Maple Meadow Brook. He is worried about it, and he discusses it at the Selectmen's meetings at every opportunity.

We can't say that we blame the gentleman.
The brook is high, and water still tends to seek its own level, which means that the cellars of many of Nicky's constituents are flooded.

Nick seems to think that the work being done by AVCO is the reason, or at least partly the reason for the flooded cellars. He may have a point, and we aren't going to enter the discussion at that level.

SUSIE'S

SONNETS

SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITY

Our noble elms, for centuries

Have, with aristocratic ease,

Graced our streets and lanes.

A lovely vista they have made;

Revived the weary with their shade;

Peeked through window panes.

And one, where Whitefield made appeal,

Incorporated in our seal,

Special status claims.

They've lived through storm and flood and freeze;

Let's weep a tear at their demise,

At the hands of a smug

Un-American bug.

But we are going to point out that the basic trouble with the Maple Meadow Brook is that it empties into the Ipswich, and the Ipswich is one of the most tortured and blocked up rivers
in Massachusetts.

From Lowell Street, which is the center of Nicky's discussion level, to Jenks, where the Ipswich starts, we doubt if there is much more than one or two inches drop in water level.

From Jenks to the foot of the Hundred Acre
Meadow, which is four miles as the crow flies,
there is only a four foot drop, at low water.
At high water it is less, and the Hundred Acre
Meadow has been flooded ever since last January.

In other words the Maple Meadow brook cannot drain until the Ipswich River is drained.

But that's an old subject. We have talked about it many times, and we probably will have to talk about it many more times, in the years to come.

WASTING TIME

A character from Grove Avenue wasted 32 minutes of the Selectmen's meeting Monday night.
He had returned home from Florida and found out that the town had taken a lot of land for unpaid taxes, 1956. He went down to the Town Hall Monday afternoon, and had the situation explained to him. He insisted on seeing the Selectmen, although he was told that they could do nothing, and an appointment was made for him.

Nothing was accomplished in the Selectmen's meeting except to waste 32 minutes. The conversation ended on a near hysterical note, not about the taxes but about hydrants and lack of sidewalks, and that part of the conversation took nearly 15 minutes.

The result was a Selectmen's meeting that lasted until after 1 am.

A few weeks ago this column drew attention to the frivolous waste of time in the Select-men's meetings by some individuals, and the natural courtesy of the Selectmen which aided and abetted that waste of time.

Next week Charles H. Black had to go to the hospital. It wasn't unexpected. What we are wondering is - who is next?

TO GLADDEN THE HEARTS

We are happy to be able to congratulate the Wilmington Lions Club for their gift of $500 to the Wilmington Youth Camps Inc., with which to build a new bunk house in Camp Forty Acres.
Wilmington is fortunate to have such a place for its youngsters, where clean and wholesome life may be had, practically next door to Mother Nature herself.

TOWN NOTES

Fishing

Tobey White, of Pinewood Road can hang his head in shame. He has been proven to be a jinx,
when it comes to Fishing.

Tobey is Wilmington's most enthusiastic fisherman. He would rather fish than make a million dollars.

Sunday afternoon Dave Brabant went up to Silver Lake, and caught 18 nice good size horn-pout, off MacQuaide's Beach.

He called up Tobey, and told him of the good fishing, so Monday the two of them went up to MacQuaide's together, to gather some more of those hornpout.

One fish only was caught, and that by Dave.

Tobey has been proven to be a jinx!

GENERAL PURPOSE SPRAY FORMULA

All purpose or general purpose formulations have taken many of the complications out of the home owners pest control problems. Probably the most useful formulae are those for fruit because many home owners have together with the apple tree the other tree
fruits such as peaches, plums, pears and cherries and perhaps
small fruits, strawberries, grapes, raspberries, blueberries. One of the good ones for all of these contains methoxychlor for general insect control; malathion for mites and aphids and to aid in other insect control; and captan for the fungicide.

The timing varies for each
fruit and must be carefully followed. The Middlesex County Extension Service, 19 Everett
St., Concord, offers Special Circular No 178, 'General Purpose, Home Fruit Schedule,' for the directions for mixing
materials and for correct timing. This formula is suited for use on most deciduous ornamentals.

FREE EVENING CHEST X-RAYS AT WALTHAM

Chest X-ray appointments are available for the May 14 evening chest X-ray clinic at the Middlesex County Sanatorium.
In cooperation with the Middle held on the second Wednesday of each month from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Any person nineteen years of age and older is eligible to have a chest X-ray.

Appointments may be made by phoning the clinic office at the sanatorium any weekday between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. --TW 4-4600.

TRANSFERRED TO OHIO

The Rev. Otis Maxfield, Pastor of the Old First Church in Springfield, and formerly pastor of the Wilmington Methodist Church, has accepted a call as senior minister of the First Community Church of Columbus, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Maxfield were presented a silver tea set, by the parishioners of the Old First Church, in a good party held last week, in Springfield. They were also given a silver chalice, as a token of remembrance, by the church.

Dr. Maxfield had served as the 17th Minister of the Old First Church in Springfield, beginning his service in July 1954. He left Wilmington in Sept. 1953, to accept a post as supervising chaplain of the Greater Springfield Council of Churches.

Dr. Maxfield received his degree of Ph.D. from Boston University, and has lately been a part-time faculty member of the Andover Newton Theological School.

The Columbus Ohio Church to which he is going, a Congregational-Christian church, is one of the five largest Protestant churches in the country. It has a membership of nearly 6,000, and an annual budget of $1,500,000.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON

BOARD OF HEALTH-REGULATIONS

The Board of Health of the Town of Wilmington, acting under the authority of the General Laws and additions thereto enabling, and acting thereunder and in accordance therewith, have in the interest of and for the preservation of the public health, duly made and adopted the following rules and regulations.

CHAPTER IX

"LIVESTOCK, POULTRY AND COMMERCIAL FUR-BEARING ANIMALS"

Section 1. Definitions

Livestock - the term 'livestock' shall mean and include goats, swine and members of the sheep, goat and bovine families.

Poultry - the term 'poultry' shall mean and include such domestic fowls as hens, roosters, turkeys, and ducks, etc.

Commercial fur-bearing animals - the term 'Commercial fur-bearing animals' shall mean and include mink and chinchillas bred, kept and raised for sale and other animals intended for laboratory and scientific experimentation.

Person - the term 'person' shall mean and include for the purpose of these regulations any owner, lessee, tenant or occupant.

Section 2. Livestock

No person shall keep within the limits of this Town on any land containing less than one acre (43,560 sq. ft.) in area or in any enclosures or building thereon situated, any livestock without a permit from the Board of Health.

Section 3. Poultry

No person shall keep for commercial purposes within the limits of this Town on land containing less than one-half acre (21,780 sq. ft.) in area or in yards, pens, runs or buildings thereon situated, any poultry without a permit from the Board of Health.

Non-commercial keeping of poultry for personal or household use shall be permitted by the Board of Health on lots less than 21,780 square feet but more than 10,000 square feet; provided that such poultry shall consist of not more than six hens or two ducks or geese, and provided further that such use shall not become a source of annoyance or a public health nuisance to the immediate abutters.

Section 4. Commercial Fur-Bearing Animals

No person shall keep, breed, raise for the purpose of sale within the limits of this Town on land containing less than three acres (130,680 sq. ft.) in area or in any cages, pens or building thereon situated any commercial fur-bearing animals without a permit from the Board of Health.

Section 5. Sanitary Requirements

A person in control of any buildings or premises in which livestock, poultry or commercial fur-bearing animals are kept or housed shall keep such buildings and premises clean and free from filth, dirt, decaying food and stagnant water and in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Health. Feed shall be stored in such a manner as to prevent, in so far as possible, the attraction and breeding of rodents and insects. Manure shall be treated with lime, or covered with earth sufficient to keep down odor, or disposed of in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Health.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to other animals as, in the opinion of the Board of Health may become a nuisance or injurious to the public health.

Section 6. Permits

Permits granted by the Board of Health shall state the number and kind of animals, the condition so permitted, and shall expire annually on July 31. Permits may be revoked or temporarily suspended by the Board of Health upon the violation by the holder of any of the provisions of these regulations.

Section 7. Variance

The Board of Health may vary the application of any provision of these regulations to any particular case when, in its opinion, the enforcement thereof would manifest an injustice, provided that the decision of the Board of Health shall not conflict with the spirit of these regulations.

Section 8. Penalty

Whoever, himself or by a servant or agent, or as the servant or agent of any other person, firm or corporation, violates any of these rules and regulations shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars, ($20) except when otherwise provided by law or by these regulations.

THE PATIENT, BEFORE AND AFTER Specialist First Class Peter Medico, US Army
of Federal Strdet, photographed with his Japanese bride, Lee, a few minutes before he became a 'casualty' in the Civil Defense drill Tuesday evening.

The next thing he knew he was being tourniqueted, splinted, bandaged, and hauled out to a Civil Defense ambulance.

Below Medico is being taken out of the ambulance at the Town Hall. Stepping down from the ambulance is the crew chief, Ralph Block.
Behind him is Bill Crane, and back to the camera is Frank Tebeau.

Medico was told he could walk home, if he wanted to, after his rude experience.

TV SHOW
(cont. fr. Page)
The entire hour if Bob Clayton's Boston Ballroom, which has recorded a remarkable increase in viewer response of each of the several weeks it has devoted to this program,
is to be devoted to the Wilmington High School youngsters.
Bernard McMahon, Principal of Wilmington High School has stated that the youngsters were chosen on the basis of being young ladies and gentlemen, and he expects that Wilmington will be proud of their young folks, when they appear on TV.
Appearing on the program will be several of the stars of the Bob Clayton show, including
The Four Lads, and the Chordets

HATHAWAY ACRES GROUP TRAINED
BY EXTENSION SERVICE

Mrs Charles McInnis and Mrs
Henry Mack, officers of the Hathaway Acres Extension Home-
maker's Group received thanks
from the Middlesex County Extension Service during National Home Demonstration Week.

Through volunteer leadership
over twenty Extension Homemaker's Groups in this county have been 'building tomorrow's world' by studying the latest methods on homemaking. Organization chairmen from each group have worked closely with the County Extension Agents in Home Economics in planning programs in the areas of foods
nutrition, time and money management, clothing and recreation.

Now is the time for new Extension Homemakers groups to organize. More information about how volunteer leadership works in promoting homemakers programs is available from the Middlesex County Extension Service, 19 Everett St, Concord

CUB PACK 59

Cub Pack 59 is to conduct a county fair at the Methodist Church grounds on May 10th between the hours of 2 and 5 pm.

Among the attractions will be a skin diving exhibition in a tank of water, with a glass front, the tank being loaned
by Sea Craft Inc. of Church
St.

There will be a showing of Phillipine Island crafts.
Prizes are to be given for winners in different games, and refreshments will be sold, along with poppable balloons.
The fair is to raise money
for the Cub outing, in June.

CIVIL DEFENSE
(cont. fr. Page 1)

US Army, home with his Japanese Bride, was assumed to have been injured in blast damage.

Under the control of Ralph
Block, head of the Ambulance Corps, the ambulance, together
with the Civil Defense Fire Engine, Fred West, Chief, was dispatched to the scene.

Peter Medico made suitable faces and groans, to indicate that he feared the wounds were mortal. Lt. Cushing, of the Wilmington Fire Department applied his knowledge of first aid, and Medico was carried out to the ambulance and back to the Wilmington Town Hall.

There, to his surprise, he was more or less rudely dumped on the ground, and told that his part in the drill was over.
Now, he was told, you can walk home.

(Of course he was given a ride, but the shock was almost enough to make Medico a real casualty)

Different Experience

The Block Warden Post on Parker Street, at the home of Mrs. C. J. Manns had a different type of report to make.

Mrs. Manns told the Central Station that the only casualty in her area was the grounds in the coffee pot. It was a case of the coffee pot perking away
and not enough people present to drink it all. She invited the Civil Defense workers to come and share the proceeds,
but it seemed that they were too busy in other parts of the town.

And Another

Rene LaRivee cooked up a plan to give Unit 5, and the Ambulance Corps a real workout
at the home of Henry Fillipone
on Hopkins Street.

He called Hank, as Fillipone is called, and told him to report all sorts of casualties
when Unit 5 arrived on the scene. Hank was to describe trees as being down across the lawn and driveway, five men
lying under them, paralyzed,
and a lady in the cellar about
to become a mother.

It was intended to be a real workout for the Ambulance and Fire Corps. But, like Bobby Burns' mouse, something went agley.

Unit 5 arrived on the scene
and reported that nothing had happened. No casualties. No nothing. No trees across the lawn. No lady in the cellar.
No stork.

SELECTMEN VOTE TO SUPPORT WITHHOLDING TAX

Although party politics was disavowed, the Board of Selectmen, Monday night, split sharply on the question of supporting Governor Furcolo's proposal for State Withholding Tax, and the split was along party lines.

By a vote of 2 to 0, the Selectmen voted a motion to instruct the Representatives and Senator of this district that they supported the bill.

Selectman Francis Hagerty and Nick De Felice voted for the motion.

Mrs. Wavie Drew and Donald Kidder abstained from voting. Mrs. Drew offered no explanation of her abstainance, but Kidder stated that he abstained, not from party politics but from the belief that the Board of Selectmen could not take it upon themselves to express the sentiment of the town in such a controversial subject.

30 STUDENTS TAKE NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP TEST

More than 30 students at Wilmington High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Principal Bernard McMahon announced recently. The test was administered at the high school on Tuesday, April 29.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

The 10,000 highest will advance to the Semi-finals and take a second examination in the fall. Those who repeat their high performance will become finalists and further evaluation will follow. Winners will be announced in the Spring of 1959.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past years has been $650 per year. The minimum award in the 1958-59 program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1500 a year.

Test results are helpful in deciding future education, and in obtaining other scholarships. The names of all program finalists will be sent to colleges and universities and other scholarship organizations through the country.

CURFEW CONTINUES
THIS WEEK AND
EVERY WEEK

The Wilmington Board of Selectmen has requested Acting Town Manager Alfred Calabrese to instruct the Chief of Police to enforce the Curfew Law, by which children under 16 years of age are not supposed to be out on the streets at night starting May 1st.

The request, made on motion of Selectman Charles H. Black followed an extraordinary session of the board and the Chief of Police, Paul J. Lynch accompanied by Sgt. John Imbimbo, in which the whole problem was thoroughly discussed behind closed doors.

Black's motion read in part 'that the Curfew By-Law shall be enforced in the spirit of reducing congregating of groups of teen agers throughout the town which are disturbing citizens of the town.'

Specifically mentioned during the discussion was the widespread damage to telephone booths, and molestation of private property, including railroad depots.

Children who disobey the curfew law may expect that their parents will have to hear about the circumstances, after May 1st.

SPINAZOLA GRAVEL PIT LICENSE GRANTED

The Board of Selectmen, Monday night, granted a license to operate a gravel pit to Clarence Spinazola of 5 Manning Street, Woburn.

Spinazola is the owner of the old Blue Hog Farm, also known as Bob Moran's, near the Woburn line, on Main Street.

The license was granted after a report had been received from the Town Engineer that Spinazola had submitted a profile plan, and a $10,000 bond in addition to bonds of $100 each for the two trucks that are to be used at the pit.

SKATING CLUB PARTY TOMORROW

The Wilmington Skating Club will hold its annual windup party for the younger members at the Clubhouse on Friday, May 9, at 7:30 p.m.

In celebration of the successful season just completed, there will be games, dancing, and refreshments.

HOUSING FOR ELDERLY BIDS
TO BE OPENED MAY 21ST

Bids for the construction of Housing for the Elderly, by the Wilmington Housing Authority are scheduled to be opened in the WHA office on Main St. at 7:30 pm, May 21st. About 40 units are called for in the specifications.

One week earlier, on May 14th bids of the sub-contractors will be opened in the same office.

ST THOMAS COUNTRY AUCTION
PLANNED JUNE 21

A Country Auction and Bean Supper is being planned by the ladies of St. Thomas Court, CDA, for the 21st of June.

Any usable articles that are no longer needed will be accepted for the auction.

Among those on the committee are Mrs. Joan Moore of Truman Road, Mrs. Winifred Barry, and Mrs. Mary Woods.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR BIRCH LEAF MINER CONTROL

The pest is most effectively controlled by spraying birches with Lindane about 10 to 15 days after the eggs are laid. In past years this has been between May 15 and May 25 for control of the first generation and July 4 to July 14 for the second generation. The recommended treatment is 1 table spoonful of 25% Lindane in one gallon of water or one tea-spoonful of 20% Lindane in one gallon of water. Insecticides are poisons and should be handled as such. Safety precautions found on the label should always be followed.

THE JURY WAS HUNG

The jury, and not the defendants, were found guilty at the mock trial in the Herbert C. Barrows Auditorium, last Saturday evening.

The Jury was found guilty of being unable to arrive at a verdict after 10 minutes of mature and leisurely deliberation. Their verdict (hung) was 10 to 2 for acquittal of the defendants, Bill Hooper of Strout Ave. and Bob Gunderson of Hathaway Road.

It was all a part of the program instituted by District Attorney James O'Dea to tell the people of Middlesex County something about court procedure.

Mr. O'Dea was unable to be present, last Saturday evening. He was represented by P. Harold Ready, Town Counsel of Billerica, who presided at the mock trial.

Gunderson was charged with being the receiver of stolen goods, and Hooper with breaking and entering with intent to commit larceny in the night time. Mrs. Bob Evans, as the widow owner of a jewelry shop was the lady from whom the watches had been stolen.

The script was taken from an actual case which had happened in Cambridge, and most of the players knew their part letter perfect - the two exceptions being Chief of Police Paul Lynch and Simon Cutter, Asst. District Attorney, both of Wilmington.

Both Lynch and Cutter showed a tendency to stray from the text, lightheartedly and in good humor, but with surprising results at times, - such as when Lynch described the hole in the jewelry store window as a 'broken hole'.

Lynch was Officer Barko. Cutter was the defense attorney. The District Attorney was Ed Duffy, also one of the Assistant District Attorney's of Middlesex County.

Mr. Ready, as the Judge, played the role straight. He made an imposing appearance, and didn't try to have his fun until after the trial was over when it was discovered that the robe he wore in such a distinguished manner was tattered and torn.

Jurors, all of whom were found guilty by the audience for not finding the defendants guilty were Willard Stantial, Bob Stevens, Jean Webster, Jean Olson, Carl Backman, Bob Evans, George F. Maynard, Hazel Backman, Frank H. MacLean, and Richard C. Pelletier, with Ray Fitzmaurice substituting for Mrs. Hooper.

Barbara Hooper, wife of one of the defendants, found herself challenged as a juror, and was unable to take part in the trial. Otherwise the jury verdict would have been nine to three for acquittal, without a doubt.

AND NOT A FENDER WAS SCRATCHED
Tommy Sullivan, of the Tree Department had a tough job Saturday morning. He was supposed to cut down an elm tree, for the new parking lot in North Wilmington.

But a new Pontiac was parked right by the tree. The doors were locked, and the car left in gear, so it couldn't be towed away. Tommy had to make the tree fall in such a way as not to injure the car.

As the picture shows, he was successful. He is to be seen wielding a chain saw, as he lops off the limbs of the fallen giant.

The tree was discovered to have been infected with Dutch Elm Disease.

WILFRED T MUSE
A Solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at St Thomas Church May 5 at 9 a.m. for Wilfred T Muse of 3 Cottage St, who died at his home May 1. Fr Edmund C Croke was Celebrant, Fr John J Regan was Deacon, and Fr John A Palmieri the Sub-deacon. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery with committal prayers read by Fr Croke and Fr Regan. The funeral was held from the McMahon funeral home at 8 a.m.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs Ruth (Murray) Muse, two sons, Arthur and Thomas, his parents, John F and Mary L Muse, two sisters, Melvina and Phyllis, and one brother, Walter, all of Wilmington.

A technical sergeant, he was a veteran of World War II, with 2½ years spent in the Pacific area. He was born in Wilmington 36 years ago and had been a lifelong resident here.

MRS ALEXANDER GILLIS
Mrs Annie (MacDonald) Gillis wife of Alexander Gillis of Randolph Rd, and mother of A Daniel Gillis, member of the Board of Appeal, died April 30 at Shattuck Hospital, Boston. Funeral services were held from the McMahon Funeral Home, 172 Middlesex Ave, Saturday, May 3, at 8 a.m., followed by a High Mass of Requiem at St Thomas Church at 9 a.m. Mass was said by Rev Fr John Regan. Burial was in Wildwood Cemetery, where Fr Croke read the committal prayers at the grave. She leaves also a daughter, Mrs Isabell Van Steensbury, and another son, James Gillis, both of Wilmington. She was born 66 years ago at Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, and had been a resident of Wilmington for the past 28 years.
